Our "Sister" States.

Tennessee sent a peace commission into Kentucky upon whose lips were the strongest protestations of loyalty and love for Kentucky. We were called not only the sister, but the "twin sister" of Tennessee; and while our authorities were exchanging civilities with the peace commission, the Reverend Major General Bishop Polk walked coelly into the State and informed the people that a "millitary necessity" required him to subjugate them. The Reverend General acted in fit concert with those who came to our State on a pretended mission. While our "twin sister" was protesting her love of peace, and her desire to respect the neutrality of Kentucky, an army of invasion was crossing the border of the State, and entrenching themselves in our cities. After the other violations it was to be expected that an ex-minister of the gospel, in the service of the Prince of Peace, would turn upon the State an army, and with sacreligious wickedness, lay waste

The next characteristic move of secession is the fight of the Secretary of State, and the Judge of the District Court of Kentucky, both of whom, in the presence of high heaven, had sworn to support the State and the Union. The Governor of the State knew this fact and concealed it. He is privy to the fact that these men intended to run away, and knew of their flight, and has not yet made answer to the demand of the Legislature. When did Thomas B. Monroe, the fugitive Secretary of State, leave Frankfort? and what knowledge had Gov. Magoffin of his flight? We want the date. We remem ber when the United States Government made a call for troops that the same Governor heralded his refusal on the wings of the wind, in most insulting terms. When the call of L. P. Walker, of the Southern Confederacy, was made, in some extraordinary and mysterious way the call was lost. The Legislature demanded it from the Govevernor, and the Governor had mislaid it.

Governor Magoffin may not, under the strong outside pressure made by the Secessionists, be fully aware of the fact that he has betrayed his constituency. In som respects he is worthy of admiration, as a genial, manipulated piece of clay, in the hands of pottering Breckinridge, and has performed his duty in that respect with the most perfect abandon.

The Journal, of yesterday, has still additional proof of the acts of Secession. They have professed in the strongest terms their determination not to interfere with any one for political opinions, and yet we find them "appropriating" a thousand bushels of wheat, blowing up bridges, tearing up railroads, and stealing tin cups, knives and forks at Bowlinggreen, Munfordsville and Rochester. The Journal gives us still more accounts-one letter from Jamestown, Ky.,

Gentlemen: Some eight days since the Confederate cavalry made a raid on Albany. Clinton county, sacked the town, taking all the arms, money, and blankets, jeans, sugar, coffee, &c., that they could find. For some six days they were in the county, robbing farmers of their bed clothes, sheep, cattle and horses. On Friday the Home Guards collected in sufficient force from Russell, Casey, Lincoln, and Adair to occupy Albany on Saturday. Col. Hoskins, from Camp Dick Robinson, reached them with some ordnance and the datachment of cavalry, when the rebels left. On Sunday Col. Hoskins sent cut a scouting party of cavalry. At Traversville, some fourteen miles from Albany, they came upon a camp of the Confederate dragoons, consisting of about 113, attacked them, completely routing them, killed seven, took eight or ten prisoners, captured all their camp equipage, consisting of ammunition, their papers, muster roles, provisions, wines, pistols. large knives, one Sharpe's rifle, one musket (that they had stolen from Albany), with numerous blankets, shawls, &c., &c. The celebrated Jim S. Chrisman was with them They got his horse, saddle-bags, and shawl. There were 80 of our boys, none of whom

My friend John L. Carter is raising company of dragoons. His company will be full this week, and by the 10th they want to start for camp. He expected to join Wolford's Regiment which is now full. Advices from Jefferson City, to October 2d say that Fremont is organizing his forces ready for a roward movement, which he in a day. A crowd of inexperienced and who arrived from Osceola in the afternoon of the 2d, reported that McCulloch was at Osceola a "few days" before, with 10,000 men, moving northward. One account at Jefferson City has Price marching on Georgetown with 30,000 men, and another statement that his army has scattered in various directions. Fremont had information that Lane had certainly defeated Parsons somewhere in the Platte county region. Lieutenant A. Morton, of an Illinois Regiment was arrested in St. Louis, Wednesday night, on a charge of treason.

The Rolla correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, writing on the 2d, says that Osceola was attacked by Montgomery, on the 22d, and the place burned. He furnishes the following in reference to the reported death of Ben. McCulloch:

The story is again revived of McCulloch's death, several of the Springfield men insisting that they are in possession of sufficient evidence to convince them of its truth. The following statement from a gentleman just arrived, bearing on this subject may be taken for what it is worth. Two ladies of Lawrence county, quite recently deter mined to settle the truth of the alleged statement to their own satisfaction. They accordingly put on secession sashes, and under the character of good and true rebels visited an officer of the Texas rengers. The inquisitive females commenced their inquiries of the officer in this way:

"The Union people about Springfield," said one of the latter, "really believe McCulloch is dead, but we know better, and would like to have our opinions con-

"Ladies," said the officer, in reply, "I never would be guilty of telling a lady an untruth. Ben McCulloch is dead. He died at Fayetteville from the effects of a wound in the leg, having refused medical aid necessary to cure him and prevent the disustrous result. The army is commanded by his brother, Sam McCulloch."

The ladies returned perfectly satisfied with the result of their inquiry. Whether they were sold depends upon the punic faith

The news from Georgetown, last Saturday, was that Price sent 4,000 men across the river on a furlough; that Sturgis attacked and drove them back, and that, in attempting to recress the Missouri on a steamer, Sturgis opened his batteries and destroyed the boat, killing large numbers.

The banks are to receive and pay out these notes at par. The New Orleans banks were the last to take this step, into which they have been driven by the rebel Government. This action of the banks at once created a scarcity of small change, the effects of which, as thus stated by the Picayune, are amusing:

"There was a great commotion in the different markets this morning, on account of the great difficulty in procuring and making change, among the butchers and market women. The purchasers, or mark-eters, were also in great distress, as they found their bargains stopped after having concluded them by the impediment of pro-

The Washington Republican of the 30th ult. has the following:

On Friday last Mr. John Haley and his son, Martin Haley, arrived in Washington, direct from Charleston, which they left on the 14th inst. Mr. Haley is a resident of more than thirty years standing in Charleston, and kept two of the principal livery stables in the city. He is a man of respectability and means, and is very intelligent upon Charleston affairs. He gave us the following statements:

There are many Union men in Charleston, but they give no public utterance to their sentiments; they know each other, and privately exchange their thoughts, hopes, and fears. His fidelity to the Southern Confederacy was doubted, and they began a system of annoyances. His son's loyalty was also doubted, and he was ordered to join a military organization, which he bravely declined to do, and said that he "was bern under the American flag, and he intended to die under it." For this "treasonable" language he was arrested and imprisoned, and continued in prison for three weeks, when he was released upon bail.

His father now determined to send him to the North, and soon after to follow him. He adroitly managed to get his son out of the city, and he made his way to Knoxville, where he awaited the arrival of his father. TERRIBLE ALARM AT NEW ORLEANS .- The following important letter was received here

ENGLISH KNOWLEDGE OF AMERICAN GEOG RAPHY .- The competency of English critics to discuss our military movements may be inferred from the following extract from an article on the American question in the July number of the London Quarterly, the highest conservative authority in Great Britain. [From the Cincinnati Press.] General Harney. The Cleveland Herald inquires : "Why the sword of General Harney is allowed to rest in its sheath?" This is a question that had better be put to the Blair family. General Harney was a slaveholder in Missouri; residing in the same State. The one had a slaveholder's proclivities to preserve the peace in Missouri, if possible, until the dispute had been settled in other fields; the other was desirous to bring it on there, with a view to putting an end to slavery, which he had boasted he was about to accomplish. General Blair went to St. Louis with an order in his pocket from the President of the United States to supercede General Harney, in case he did not come up to General Blair's standard of performance.

General Harney was susperceded under circumstances calculated to convey the impression that he was an object of suspicion to the Government. Under such circumstances General Harney can neither tender his services to the Government nor the Government call upon General Harney. Whether General Harney is in his heart loyal to the Government is a point upon which the public has not been directly advised; but it may be doubted whether his doings at St. Louis are calculated, if rightly understood, to throw a doubt upon his

Legislature to the People of Ken-

In this extraordinary crisis, we deem it a duty we, your representatives, owe to you and ourselves, to say a few words to you, as to the condition of the Commonwealth, and the duties we have been called upon to perform.

We have ardently desired peace, and hoped to save Kentucky from the calamities of war. When the Federal authorities deemed it necessary to employ force in selfdefense, and to execute the laws of the Government, we assured our Southern neighbors of our purpose not to take up arms voluntarily against them, notwith-standing their wicked attempt to destroy the Government, from which we and our fathers have received the greatest benefits. Every effort was made, both before and after the employment of force, to effect some compromise and settlement that would restere the Union and prevent the effusion of blood.

The Federal Government did not insist upon our active aid in furnishing troops, seeming content if we obeyed the laws and executed them upon our own soil. Those engaged in rebellion, however, with hypo-critical professions of friendship and re-spect, planted camps of soldiers all along our southern border; seized, by military power, the stock on our railroad within their reach, in defiance of chartered rights; impudently enlisted soldiers upon our soil for their camps, whom they estentatiously marched through our territory. They made constant raids into this State; robbed us of our property; insulted our people; seized some of our citizens, and carried them away, as prisoners, into the Confederate States. Our military was demoralized by the treachery of its chief officer in command, and many of his subordinates, until t became more an arm of the Confederate States than a Guard of the State of Ken-tucky. Thus exposed to wrongs and indignities, with no power prepared to prevent or resent them, some of the citizens of this State formed camps under the Federal Government, for the defense and protection of the State of Kentucky. What-ever might have been thought of the policy once, recent events have proved that they were formed none too soon.

In this condition we found Kentucky when the Legislature met, on the first Mon-day in September. We still hoped to avoid war on our own soil. We were met by assurances from the President of the Con-federate States that our position should be respected; but the ink was scarcely dry with which the promise was written, when we were startled by the news that our soil was invaded, and towns in the southwest of our State occupied by Confederate armies. The Governor of Tennessee disavowed the act, and protested his innocence of it. commissioners at Frankfort professed the same innocence of the admitted wrong; but our warnings to leave were only answered by another invasion in the southeast of the State, and a still more direct and deadly assault upon the very heart of the State by way of the Nashville road. These sudden irruptions of such magnitude, skillfully directed, show that the assault on Kentucky was preconcerted, prepared and intended long before. The excuses made for any of them but add insult to injury. We shall not repeat them. They are but excuses for acts intended, without any excuse.

The purpose is to remove the theater of the war from the homes of those who wickedly originated it to those of Kentucky, and to involve this State in the rebellion. This to involve this State in the rebellion. purpose appeared to be well understood in seceded States. They need the territory of Kentucky, and are determined to have it, it must be by blood and conques but to call on the strong arms and brave hearts of Kentucky to expel the invade from our soil, and to call for the aid of the Federal Government, as we had a right to do under the Federal Constitution. Our foes would dictate terms to a brave people, upon which we can have peace. We are required to join them in their unwarranted rebellion, become accessory to their crimes, and consent to sacrifice the last hope of permanently uphelding republican of the powder and lead belonging to the institutions, or meet their invasions as it becomes Kentuckians.

We believe we have done our duty to chivalric people, who have forborne long, but will never fail, as a last resort, to resen an injury and punish an insult. We should hold ourselves unworthy to represent you, if we had done less. The only error, we fear is, that we have not been as prompt, you may think, as the occasion demanded. Thrice have the revolutionists appealed to the ballot-box in this State, and have the people expressed, by overwhelming majorities, their determination to stand by the Union and its Government. have not been active in this war, not from indifference, or want of loyalty, but in the hope of better promoting a restoration of the Union, and checking the rebellion by that course. Our hope of an amicabl adjustment, and a desire for peace, led us to forbear, until forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. The attempt to destroy the Union of these States time we have left to to vindicate, by arms, the integrity of the Government. The Union is not only as-Mr. Tucker, from Committee on Taverns sailed now, but Kentucky is herself threatruthless destruction of property, and the lives and liberties of our people, that belongs only to savage warfare.

We have no choice but action-prompt and decided. Let us show the insolent invaders that Kentucky belongs to Kentuckians, and that Kentucky valor will vindicate Kentucky's honor. We were unpre-pared because unsuspecting. An insolent and treacherous invader tells the people that their legislators have betrayed them and he comes with fire and sword to correct their error, by a crusade against property, liberty and life.

Young men of Kentucky, to arms! to protect the home of your fathers, mother and sisters. Sound the tocsin on every hil and in every valley, until Kentucky shall drive the inscient invader from her soil.

AN ADDRESS TO THE MERCHANTS OF LOUIS-VILLE.

The Committee appointed at a meeting of the merchants of this city, held at the Cus-tom House on the 2d inst., to take into consideration the subject of regulating and conducting the trade of the city in strict conformity to the laws of the land, and to suggest some plan by which the legitimate trade may be carried on, under the embarassing circumstances which surround us, arising from the circumscribed limits of our present business, so that there may be no interference with the regular trade of the State, within the boundaries herein defined on the one hand and no conflict between the military and civil authorities on the other, have had the same under consideration and

Rumors were current all over the city report from the committee appointed at a yesterday morning that New Orleans had previous meeting, and that report is as fol- been taken by the Federal forces, or would soon be in their hands; and an item appeared in our evening edition giving publicity to a statement that such an event had possibly taken place, or would soon occur. The grounds upon which the possibility are based, are, in our opinion, strong enough to justify the belief of that possibility.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing from the U. S. frigate Niagara, off the mouth of south-west pass of the Mississippi, dated Sept. 14th, in which cc. curs the following statement: "There is a rumor prevalent among us that we are to join with the flag ship in an attack on Ship Island." The New Orleans Bulletin of the 16th, gives an account of the evacuation of Ship Island at 8 o'clock, on the night of the 14th, and states that the evacuation was "a military necessity "-no doubt brought about by fears of an attack.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Fortress Monroe on the 18th September, stated that a powerful fleet was ready to sail, and would leave that evening or the next day for some unknown point on the Southern coast. At the same time the Atlantic, Baltic, and another steamer were loading with provisions, ammunition, and equipments, and putting up sleeping accom modations for large numbers, and were expected to leave New York on or about the

An officer of the steamer Massachusetts, blockading the mouth of the Mississippi, gives the following predictions in a letter written in the early part of September, before the evacuation of Ship Island:

There is no doubt that an attack will soon be made on some of the principal ports on the Gulf. The day fixed is about the 20th We expect more vessels here every day, and this place is to be used as a ren dezvous for vessels in this part of the Gulf. Probably Chandeleur Island will be fortified and held until we can recapture Ship

The St. Louis Republican of the 3d contains the following:

We hear that a letter was received in this city from New Orleans, in which it is stated that a fleet of seventy vessels, large and small, was then coming up the Balize to attack New Orleans. We did not see the letter, but this is said to be the substance of it. Nor is it improbable. A telegraphic dispatch from New Orleans, dated the 20th. was published some days since, in which it was said:

"The Federals have nine batteries on Chaudierre Island, and are expecting lumber to build houses and hospitals. Twelve housand men are to be placed on that island and in the neighborhood. They also intend to fortify Ship Island, and prevent all communication between Mobile and New Orleans,"

Chaudierre Island and Ship Island lie on the coast of Mississippi, the first about twenty miles from Mississippi City, and the latter about ten miles from the same point. Information was also published from another quarter, that the blockading squadron had taken Mississippi City, cutting off communication by land and water between Mobile and New Orleans. Mississippi City is seventy miles distant from New Orleans It is well known now, that an immense fleet sailed from New York in so mysterious a manner that nobody knew its object or its coast, which has, doubtless, been the case, and no surprise need be expressed if New Orleans has already been captured by the United States fleet.

The Bulletin of last evening learns from a gentleman who left New Orleans about the 24 h of Sept , that great efforts are [Among these bills is the general appropribeing made to place the city in a state of defense, as great fears were entertained; that there were only about 6,000 troops in had informed the Senate, that he had apand around the city.

CONFEDERATE TROOPS UNDER THE plea of military necessity have taken possession of your soil, torn up your railroads, blown up looks, burned bridges, insulted your citizens, and undertake to give a protectorate, by making a false assumption that your Legislature is misrepresenting tour will. Are you willing to submit to these outrages? If so, the sphit that burned in the bosoms of your fathers has burned out; you are slaves and worthy to be slaves. Mut I know that the same spirit that won the dark and boody land and made our fathers victorious on many a hard-feucht battle-field still animates the bosoms of their sons, and that splits will not rest until the last armed foe is driven ignominiously from our soil. Let us then, as one man, rise up and repel the invader. By the authority and for the service of the United States, I propose to organize in Kentucky a resiment of infentry to serve three years, or during the war, to consist of ten companies, each company to contain not less than eighty-flur, nor more than one hundred and four, rank and the. The Cantains and heutenants are to be elected by the companies respectively. Captains of companies will report to me, as soon as nossible, during the session of the Legislature, at the Capital Hote!, Frankfort. After the adjournment, at Westport, Oldham county, Ky. Transportation to the point of rendeavons will be 'unnished. No company must be removed from its point of organization until ordered into camp. None but active, 'tigorous men, and men of steasy habits will be received. I know my countrymen will galve our by to the defense of the State, and for the boolest cause in the tioe of time that man was ever called upon to defend.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 .- The following is the result of inquiries to day in official quarters:

The charges preferred by Col. F. P. Blair against Major General Fremont on the 26th of September have not yet reached Washington. According to the revised Army Regulations, copies are required to be transmitted through the superior officer, which in this case is General Frement himself. A copy of the charges, however, has been received, to be filed in the event that Gen. Fremont himself should neglect or decline to transmit the original dccu ment to the War Department.

In response to a requisition of General Fremont for a Quartermaster for the Western Department, Brigadier General Mc-Kinstry having taken the field, Major Al'en has been appointed to that position. It is further ascertained that Brigadier-General Sherman will take command of the Department of Kentucky. The delicate state of General Anderson's health alone renders this arrangement necessary.

There seems to be no doubt that General

There seems to be no doubt that General Fremont will be superceded. No official notification has been given of this fact. General Wool, it is thought by those well informed in military circles, will proceed to the west under specific instructions, and it is thought that he will engage of General it is thought that he will supercede General Fremont. No positive information is de-rivable on the subject.

An army order has been issued announcing that all depredations upon private property will be severely punished; that no remission for such outrages will be exercised, and that the guards placed over such property will be held responsible as the principals. A number of military gentlemen of Ohio have applied to Gov. Dennison for the establishment of a camp in the vicinity of Cincinnati. It is proposed to establish an encampment, comprising a brigade of Zouaves, six squadrons of picked cavalry, and a battery of eight rifled cannon.

The loyal citizens of Kansas have petitioned the Government for military aid. They fear that, if Price is not defeated in Missouri.

The announcement that the Spanish Government proposes sending an expedition against Mexico with a land force of 5,000 men, to march to the city of Mexico, is looked upon here as mere brag. Should any such interference take place, our Government has determined to resist and promptly expel, with our army and navy, any force that may be directed against the neighboring republic of Mexico.

The United States will also be called upon to supply a large amount.

DARNESTOWN, Oct. 4 .- At noon to-day all HAVE ON HAND A LARGE AND DESIRABLE Point of Rocks the Great Falls. The enemy have not made their appearance in any force since leaving the encampment oppo-site Muddy Branch yesterday morning.

There has been a considerable movement among the Union troops in this vicinity today, but nothing to indicate any immediate advanceor hostilities.

The enemy's recent movement towards Leesburg and the Point of Rocks is construed into a strategetic movement, and one not requiring the strengthening of any par-ticular point along this line; besides, the present high stage of the water in the Pois to be relied on, the enemy's strongest position is about 12 miles in the rear of Manassas Junction, where it is represented that the entire available reserves of the rebels are concentrated. The bearer of this information has recently visited all the Johnson & Kimball, corner of Fourth and TO THE RESCUE! UNITABILE : UNITAB of the rebels, which are not proper to publish. All former statements as to the privations, discontent, and demoralization of the rebel army are fully confirmed. The officers still attempt to inflate the hopes of the soldiers that Washington will fall an easy prey to the chivalry of the South, but the recent successful expedition to Hatteras, and the progress of Gen. On Sunday evening, Price began to evacuate the town, and his troops were constantly departing until 5 o'clock Monday evening, when the last regiment left. Capt. Money and The Louisville Democratic Head of the Same old story is repeated day after day—"nothing new." There are no movements of capital at all in this market, but we look to see the day not far distant when there will be a change.

About $700, 00 demand Treasury notes were paid out in Cincinnati yesterday, by the Quartermaster, in payment of Government debts. These notes being bank ab'e speedily found their way into Third street to the relief of a somewhat scarce currercy. The demand for loans was light and freely met at 100, 12 per cent. The discrimmination against the People's Bank of Kentucky was less than it had been.

Shoments to and from this point will now be made mostly for the next few days by the river, as the rail road's are engaged for Government use. There is already a sign of coming activity in the river trade Freights have hitherto een merely nominal, but we quote shipments of flour to Pittsburgh by the J H Done at 35c, or through to New York byriver to Pittsburg at $1 50 from Chicinnati; all rail the charges are at $1. 5.

Floits and Gank—Some light sales of Flour have been made for home demand at previous quotations, $4 300 to 5 25 for best brands; second grade at $3 50; lots for shipment at fixures not transpiring. Sales of Whest have been heavier than any previous day this week reaching 3200 sacks, at out last quotations. The receipts are mostly by river from below, and the Kentucsy.

TO SERVE IN A REGIMENT COMMANDED BY Col. Jas. S. Jackson, AND ATTACHED TO THE COLUMN OF

I HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED TO alse a regiment of infantry to be mustered at the service of the United States, and to form a part of the force under the com-mand of General Robert Anderson. Com-

The time, fellow-citizeos, has come, when even the unpatrio ic and the selfish s'ould has en to take up arms for the common defense of their State and comparing the true control of the common defense of their State and compared to the common defense of their State and compared to the common defense of their self-interest calls us to the field. If our enemies triumph, all our professions, all our avocations of whatever character, all our possessions of every description, become valueless. To save ourselves and our families from ruin, not less than to save our State and our country from d'gradation and shame, we must raity now where the National flag invites us. Come, then, let us gird up the whole strength of our bodies and souls for the conflict, and may the Got of Battles guide home every blow we strike. For one, I am unwilling to see the people of my native State overrun and conquered by men cialming to be citizen of a foreign government. I cannot be indifferent to the issue which an unnatural enemy has forced upon Kentuckians.

CHEAT MOUNTAIN SUMMIT, Oct 3 .- Special to the Cincinnati Commercial -This morning at 1 o'clock a portion of Brigadier General Reynolds' brigade, consisting of the 3d Ohio, the 24th, 25th, and 32d, and a portion of the 6th, Indiana regiments, the 7th, 9th, 13th, 14 h, 15th, and 17th, together with detachments of Bracken's Indiana, Robinson's Ohio and Greenfield's Pennsylvania cavalry, and detachments of Howe's U. S. Loomis Michigan, and Downs' Virginia, artillery, numbering in all 5,000 men, left Cheat Mountain Summit te make a reconnoisance, in force, in front of the enemy's position en Green Brier river, 12 miles distant.

Ford's 32d Ohio was sent forward to hold an important road, the possession of which prevented the enemy from flanking our main column. The expedition arrived in front of the enemy's fortifications at 8 o'clock, their pickets retreating after firing an ineffectual volley. Kimball's 14th Indiana was immediately sent forward to secure a position for Loomis' battery. Ammen's 24th deployed as skirmishers on the south slope of the mountain. Loomis' battery, sup-ported by the 17th Indiana, Lieut. Colonel Weldon commanding, opened the battle. The shot was immediately responded to by a voltey from the enemy concealed in the bushes, who were soon routed by the 14th Indiana, with a loss of seven killed and a large number wounded and taken prisoners. Harris' battery, supported by the Thir-

It shows conclusively that it is a position 300 yards nearer the enemy's fortifications, and opening a brisk fire. Davin bringing forward two pieces, one was stationed near Howe, and likewise opened a brisk fire. The firing on both sides was almost incessant for one hour; our artillery doing execution, judging from the lamentable shrieks of their wounded. The enemies battery did comparatively little, the guns being two much elevated. Our guns effectually silenced three of theirs. While observations were being made of the enemy's fortifications, occupying three hours, an irregular artillery fire was kept up, occupyng the enemy's attention. During this interval the Twenty-fifth Ohio and Fifteenth Indiana rendered effectual service scouring

Before the close of the reconnoisance, which was now satisfactory, the enemy received heavy reinforcements from their camp near Monteray, making ORRILL Mrs A M their strength about 15,000. Although this reconnoisance partakes more of the character of a regular engagement than any previous battle in Western Virginia, our lo but ten killed and eleven wounded. It is impossible to ascertain the enemy's loss. It will not, however, fall short of 500 killed and wounded, as our artillery did terrible execution.

Their camp was situated on the slope of the mountain, supported by a number of guns. We captured thirteen prisoners from Virginia and Arkansas regiments; also a lot of cattle and horses. Our troops, one and all, did nobly. The reconnoisance proved entirely successful, affording information relative to the enemy's strength which could not be ebtained from scouts — General Anderson and Colonels Johnson, Jackson, and Taliaferro commanded the enemy.

Sr. Louis, October 4 .- The Democrat this morning, in an article showing why General Lyon was not reinforced, states that the entire force under General Fremont, on the 2d of August, including Lyon's command of 4,000, was 19,315, of which 12,556 were three months' men, whose term of enlistment was just expiring, leaving an actual force of 6,759 in the department. Of these, Lyon had 2,320 men, the balance, 4,439, being the strength of Fremont's available force. THESE "PILLS" NEVER FAIL TO CURE ALL OF the above-named Fevers, and what is better, they also ACT AS A PREVENTIVE, if taken occasionally, ordally, while exposed to the infection. Hence the old adage, "Anounce of preventive is worth a nounce of cure."

Dr. Merwin's "Fever and Ague Pills" differ from all other Chill Medicines, in the following particulars:
ist. They never fail to perform a speedy and permaneat cure. 2d. They are recommended only for on class of dis-33d. They are agreeable and convenient to take. 4th. They contain no poisonous minerals, being pure

th. They contain no possession in the graph of the system.

b. They do not impair the organic functions of the stomach or any part of the system.

6th. They require no other medicine to prepare the system for their reception, o afterwards to allay irritative. on.
7th. They are not a Northern "catch-1 enny humbug," tt are prepared by gentlemen that were born, reared
